Dear Mr. Ewrackin

18th January 2014

The late expression of my thanks to you and the Foundation, in no reflect the immense gratitude I feel for your kindness in bestowing such a great honour upon me. I am truly amazed and honoured to be associated in this way with such a remarkable man, his example and his ongoing memory.

The work is your Foundation is so thoroughly worthwhile. It is one of great endeavour and nobility. Keeping the lessons of the Shoah in the minds of future generations is as important as it is priceless. Both my Grandson Raoul and my son Brian keep me regularly updated on your quest in this.

The story of humanity is of a tendency to revisit what are often rather obvious lessons. Your message is one that tries to avoid the need for relearning. In the world we live in this represents a very hard endeavour indeed. Your unflagging courage and persistence in this carries my admiration and good wishes.

May you never give up your capture of Raoul Wallenberg place in any future agenda. Indeed may there be many more like me who can make their humble contribution to your cause. I am truly very touched indeed by such kind attention you have given me.

Yours sincerely
Barbara Mooyaart
